VOLUME 46 CAMERON, MILAM COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1927 TWELVE PAGES TODAY NO. 43

FOR CAMERON

Here is a worthy program for Cameron. Cameron needs these things and we should keep Cameron ahead:

- More Street Paving
- A Cotton Mill
- A Canning Plant
- A full time, fully paid secretary for the Commercial Club.
- Better Street Lighting
- Diversified Farming
- More Poultry and Livestock
- More Produce and a Better Market Outlet for Same.
- A Better Spirit of Co-Operation.
- Development of Pecan Industry
- An Agricultural Experiment Branch
- An Application of the Soil Survey
- A Junior College
- A Fair Association
- More Sidewalks and Beautification of School Grounds.
- Sanitation.

I WOULD GO ON

Hills that march in the moonlight to the sea,
Tides that fret and seek to shape anew
A changeless shore, I would go on like you,
On toward the thing that I would like to be.
Cold creaking stars, I do not need to see,
I do not clamour for the golden view
I'll find the roadway and a flower too.
The going, not the goal, shall set men free.
I would go on, and if when I am done
I stand one least step nearer to the sun,
I shall not weep because the valley gleams
Less beautiful than all my sky-kissed dreams;
To the Upward Way I set one shrine apart,
In the blue and gold cathedral of my heart.

Jeff Hefley Announces Anniversary Sale At Cash & Carry Store

On Saturday, February 26, Jeff Hefley Cash and Carry Store No. 1 will hold it's first anniversary sale.

One year ago Mr. Hefley opened his cash and carry store and helped to press down the high cost of living to Cameron families.

He is advertising a special line of grocery bargains for Saturday and invites his friends and patrons to come to the store especially on that date for the feast of bargains.

In Cameron newspapers this week Mr. Hefley has an announcement that will be of interest to everyone.

Prices are quoted and everything will be in readiness for the big day at this store.

Mr. Hefley takes pride in the success he has had in the reduction of the cost in the cash and carry store.

The petrel, which obtains its food by seeming to run on the surface of the sea, is named for Saint Peter, who, through faith, tried to walk on the Sea of Galilee.

CARP OF THANKS

"I desire to extend the thanks of the church to the firemen and to Chief Thomas and all who so valiantly assisted in fighting the fire which on last Saturday greatly damaged St. Monica's. The truly American spirit of unselfish sacrifice in the crisis appeals to me as very commendable and I want to express the deep appreciation that we feel for the heroic work of the firemen. These men are of all faiths and they worked side by side without stint or limit to their efforts to save the church. To each of them we extend our deepest thanks in full appreciation of the great spirit shown during this fire.

Rev. Geo. Apel,
Pastor St. Monica's Church

ST. MONICAS CHURCH DAMAGED BY FLAMES

LOSS ESTIMATED AT $8,000 TO $10,000 IN FIRE HERE SATURDAY MORNING

St. Monica's Catholic church was almost destroyed by fire early Saturday morning starting from a flue in the side wall of the church shortly after Rev. Father Apel, pastor and Rev. Father Spinneweber, former pastor, had concluded with 7:30 mass.

The loss partially covered by insurance, according to Rev. Father Apel, is estimated at from $8,000 to $10,000. The flames were discovered by Father Apel shortly after he had concluded the 7:30 mass. Rev. Father Spinneweber, was assisting in the service. They had concluded the service and had left the pulpit and were standing near the stove. A fire had been kindled to warm the church early that morning and had been replenished shortly after the service. Father Apel detected the order of the burning wood and the flame bursting lightly from the wall about the flue made a reflection in his glasses. Looking up he saw the fire issuing from the wall and immediately gave the alarm.

The firemen under chief Thomas responded quickly. The flames had spread rapidly up the wall and to the shingle roof, but heroic work by the men saved a portion of the roof and the walls. All articles of value and reverence, including the Blessed Sacrament were removed immediately on discovery of the flames.

St. Monica's church is a beautiful wood structure and was built in 1904 under the leadership of Rev. Peter Pienemann who was then pastor of the church. In 1905 Rev. Father Spinneweber now head of the Parish at Georgetown began his pastorate and remained with Cameron parish until 1924 when on account of his health he retired from the active ministry for a time.

In August 1924 Rev. Father Apel became pastor of the church.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found a photo of the church taken in 1921. The Herald has had photos taken of the church since the fire and they will be published next week.

The church has made no plans to rebuild the church but it is likely this will be done in the near future. The walls and the roof will be restored to their former use.

The church in appreciation of the services of the firemen gave the firemen $100.00 a check having been signed by Father Apel and delivered to Chief Thomas on Monday morning of this week.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended the Rev. Father Apel and his members on the loss to them. The church here has a large membership and the church as well as surrounding property is valuable and well situated.

Hurrah For The House; Convention Move Gets Axe; People Saved

Austin, Tex., Feb. 23.—The house today voted down the senate resolution by Stuart to call a constitutional convention in Texas.

The resolution would have submitted to popular vote the question of holding the convention in September and would have provided election on the same ballot, of three delegates from each senatorial district to help frame a new state constitution.

Vote against the resolution was 82 to 39, on a motion by Representative Sam Gates of Runge to table. Gates expressed fear that such delegates as might be elected might not "draft as good a constitution as we have now."

"Better observe the constitution you have now," Gates said.

Representative Deberry of Bogata also took a strong stand against the resolution.

NEW CLUTCH DEVELOPMENT

New Hudson-Essex cars have a single-disc clutch running in oil, but so designed that oil does not need renewal or replenishment for many thousand miles. When clutch is running dry, a slight grabbing tendency will notify the driver that oil is needed. This construction is new in the clutch field.

J. B. White To Lead Lesson Discussion Baptist Bible Class

J. B. White, editor of the Herald and assistant teacher of the Baptist Bible Class, will lead the lesson discussion on Sunday, having been requested by the teacher to present the lesson in compliance with the schedule of programs now in effect at the class.

On last Sunday Dr. Epperson presented the lesson on "Living and Working Together in the Church." The members enjoyed the discussion.

Fred B. Cable, teacher of the class requests full attendance next Sunday and visitors are invited to visit the class.

CATHOLIC CHURCH GIVES $100 TO CITY FIREMEN

APPRECIATION EXPRESSED FOR WORK OF DEPARTMENT IN FIRE SATURDAY

A check for $100 has been given to Chief Thomas for the firemen by Rev. Father Apel, pastor of St. Monica's church which was partially destroyed by fire on last Saturday morning.

Father Apel expresses his appreciation in a card of thanks in this issue and also has assured Chief Thomas to whom the check was given, that the church and the pastor is deeply grateful for the unselfish work of the firemen.

Two firemen, Henderson Thompson and Pete Kunz, narrowly escaped injury during the fire when a ladder on which they were scaling the flaming wall broke, pinning them beneath.

Chief Monta Thomas discussing the gift which he accepted for the department said: "Please say that the fire department appreciates the spirit of the Catholic church and Father Apel in this generous gift of $100. We accept this gift with the feeling that the work of the firemen was appreciated by the church and pastor. The department and chief knows no restraint in times like this and the spirit of the men both Catholic and Protestant is typical of the unselfish service that is rendered at all times by the department. We want the Catholic people to know that we did our best for them and only regret that we could not reduce the damage more."

To Sell Levy Stock At Bankrupt Prices

B. R. Goldberg has purchased the bankrupt stock of W. B. Levy and will sell it at below cost prices in a big sale to begin on Saturday, March 5.

Mr. Levy will be in charge of this sale and will manage the store during the sale.

Friends of Mr. Levy will be glad to know that he is to continue with this store. He appreciates the interest his friends have taken in his behalf. Mr. Levy made many friends here and the entire community regrets that he has had this temporary setback in business.

Mr. Levy has been employed by Mr. Goldberg to manage this store according to announcement in this issue.

DEMONSTRATION CLUB FROWNS ON MATRIMONY

IT TAKES AWAY THEIR AGENTS. THEY WANT TO KEEP THIS ONE

The Home Demonstration Club of Ben Arnold met with Mrs. Otto Kelm president, Mrs. Willis Vogelsang pre-on Wednesday, February 16, 1927 with siding.

Quick breads was the subject for discussion and demonstration. Response to the roll call was made with quotations using the word "bread". Our brand new agent, Miss Barthelmew, was with us, and we found her good to look at, very charming, and accomplished.

Now ye scribe will stop right here for the ladies unanimously agreed that "mum" was the word in regard to said accomplishment, because we realize our own husbands wouldn't be safe where those parkerhouse rolls and hot biscuits were concerned. They left such a satisfied feeling when you got on the outside of them.

We like our new agent and we do

THREE BANK BANDITS ARE TAKEN TO PRISON

SHERIFF TAKES YOUTHS TO WALLS FOR ROBBERIES IN TEXAS

Sheriff Blaylock has returned from Huntsville where on Tuesday he took three youthful bank bandits to the walls to begin serving sentences for robberies in Texas.

The men are: Lyter Huffman, James Hairston and Clyde Stratton.

The men entered pleas of guilty in the district court of Milam County for an attempt to rob the Milam bank on December 15, 1926. They had previously been convicted for the robbery of the bank at Odell and were in jail at Vernon from which place they were brought here for trial.

Vivian Wilfong, pretty 20 year old girl from Shenandoah, Iowa, who was arrested with the men and charged with attempt on the bank at Milam in complicity with the three youths, as well as burglaries, may be released from the jail and not tried in Milam County.

It develops that Miss Wilfong remained in a high powered car near the little church at Milam on the dark night when the three young men, one of whom, James Hairston, was born and reared at Milam, stole away with torches to cut into the vault for the money. The men were frightened away and ran through Cameron, abandoning a stolen car on the road between here and that place.

They were arrested in Mineral Wells. The young woman has been restless and prone to yearn for the corn fields of Iowa and the old home place where her mother and father lives.

GIRLS BASKETBALL ROCKDALE MARCH 4, 5

TENNIS TOURNAMENT TO BE STAGED ON COURTS HERE SATURDAY MARCH 12

The girls basketball tournament for Milam County will be held in Rockdale, March 4th and 5th. This tournament is held each year to determine the winning basket ball team of the county. In the years past there has been as much if not more interest in the girls tournament than in the boys tournament.

All schools entering this tournament should notify Mr. Montgomery, Principal Rockdale High School, at once.

Those in charge of the tournament this year have found it necessary to charge an entry fee, this fee has been set at $2.00. This fee is necessary to cover the expenses of the tournament. An admission fee will also be charged, but it has been found from past tournaments that this admission charge will not defray all the expenses of the tournament.

The tennis tournament will be held on the Yoe High School Courts, March 12, 1927.

Selling Kasch Seed For Cotton Planting

A. E. Green is selling second year Kasch cotton seed for planting. These seed have been used by Milam County cotton farmers for a number of years and are among well known varieties of pedigree seed that are adopted to this section of the cotton growing area.

Mr. Green has handled these seed for the past three years or more and they have been greatly beneficial in increasing the cotton yield of the county.

Mr. Green can be found at the First National Bank building. These seed are sacked and ready to load.

HASSELL, SLAYER OF 13, APPEALS CASE

WARDEN NOTIFIED SENTENCE OF DEATH FOR HASSELL IS PREMATURE

Austin, Tex., Feb. 21.—George J. Hassell, charged with slaying his wife and stepchildren in Parmer County, will not be electrocuted at Huntsville State prison on February 25. Governor Moody Monday notified N. L. Speer, warden of the State penitentiary, that the death sentence pronounced on Hassell was unauthorized for the reason that after conviction notice of appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals had been given and 90 days is allowed by law in which to perfect the appeal to the higher court.

Hassell shortly after his conviction was sentenced to death by electrocution on February 25 and he was removed to State prison at Huntsville and has been confined in the death cell. Governor Moody has declined to grant application for commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment, and also to grant a stay of execution pending proceedings which were to be brought by Hassell's sister, Mrs. P. A. Watson of Ft. Worth to determine whether Hassell is insane.

Official papers were received by the Governor Monday from Parmer County authorities showing that Hassell had given notice of appeal and that the case is now pending on appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals. He also received a letter from Warden Speer, requesting instructions as to whether he should carry out the order contained in the death warrant. Warden Speer was notified by the Governor that the death sentence and death warrant were unauthorized.

TRIGGS DRY GOODS CO. GOING OUT OF BUSINESS

SELLING OUT AND QUITTING SAYS ADVERTISEMENT IN HERALD

The Triggs Dry Goods Company, for a number of years one of the leading dry goods firms of this section, is going out of business according to a published advertisement in this issue of Cameron papers.

A large consignment of circulars printed by a sales manager who is conducting the sale, are being distributed.

The firm has a large stock. This stock is to be sold at below wholesale costs and lower than bankrupt prices, according to the announcement.

The announcement that Triggs Dry Goods Company will retire from business will be received with regret. The firm has been in business for a number of years and has a wide circle of patronage.

Cameron will soon have five business buildings vacant and the Yoe building occupied by Triggs is one of the largest buildings in the city.

Poultry Expert Is Retained By Hatchery

Cameron Hatchery announces the employment of I. J. Rosprim, expert poultry man. He will give free advice to the poultry raisers on how to cull flocks and raise poultry. He can be found at all times at the hatchery.

Mr. Rosprim was for a number of years in charge of the flocks of A. & M. College and is an expert in the management and study of poultry.

JAMES L. STEWART, 86 PIONEER IS BURIED

RESIDENT OF COUNTY OVER 70 YEARS, BELOVED CITIZEN DIES

James L. Stewart, 86, pioneer citizen and resident of Milam County for 79 years, died at the farm home Monday, February 21, 1927 and was buried on February 22 in the Pin Oak Cemetery a short distance from the home in which he had spent the major portion of his life.

Mr. Stewart was the last surviving member of the company of men who marched away from the Cameron Court House under Major Rogers, to fight in the Civil War. He had lived in Milam county since a youth of seven years.

James L. Stewart was born near Raleigh, Miss., on April 15, 1841. He like many of the pioneers, though only a lad, came with the family to Texas, then a land of glamor and opportunity awakening the spirit of romance in the hearts of the men who had wrought an empire west of the Father of Waters.

At a tender age he was left an orphan and fortunately came under the influence of Jerry Nabours, noted pioneer and circuit rider. Mr. Stewart was a Christian and member of the Methodist church. Jerry Nabours, remembered by the pioneers for his work as a minister, was a brother of Jim Neighbors whose name has been magnified in the story of "North of 36," the prominent and colorful novel by Emerson Hugh of the historic times of the cattle trails to Abilene.

After serving through the war between the states Mr. Stewart returned to Milam County where he settled down and devoted his life to farming and giving his influence to the civilization of the country, in which he with other pioneers wrought well in the advancing years to bring development to the country.

Services for the departed pioneer were held Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the family residence near Pin Oak Cemetery. A large gathering of friends and neighbors came to pay their respects. A large number from Cameron attended the funeral directed by the Coleman Eplen undertaking company.

Rev. Cooper of Rosebud Methodist church conducted the services, delivering a beautiful eulogy at the grave. The deceased pioneer is survived by two sons, A. B. Stewart, Hanover; Leonard Stewart who resides in south Texas; one daughter, Mrs. W. A. Belt of Cameron; two grand children reared in his home and loved as his own: Mrs. W. N. Cone, Rosebud and Mit Cox of Orange.

The Herald extends its sympathy to the bereaved relatives in the loss of their loved one.

HOPE LUTHERAN CHURCH BUCKHOLTS

On Sunday, February 27 at 10:30 a. m. German services. A meeting will be held after the services for the purpose of calling a new pastor. All members urged to be present. At 8 p. m. English services. Saturday and Sunday School as usual. A cordial invitation to attend our services is extended to all.

W. FLIERL, Pastor.

Mrs. Frances Looney of Ben Arnold who was injured in an automobile accident last Sunday afternoon was taken to the Sanitarium in Temple for treatment Tuesday. Her friends are eager to hear of her recovery.

HASSELL EXECUTION DELAYED BY APPEAL

Austin, Tex., Feb. 21.—The execution of George Hassell, confessed slayer of 14 persons, set for Feb. 25, will be delayed due to an appeal which will be filed with the court of criminal appeals here, Governor Dan Moody said today.

Moody said he has been notified that Hassell had given notice of appeal and that the warden of the penitentiary has been ordered to stay the execution until the court shall act on the appeal.

Kenmore House to Be Preserved for the Nation

George Washington's Virginia kinswoman was present to bid visitors welcome to the one exhibit at the Sesqui-centennial where floated the flag of the Old Dominion.

She was very much at home there, Miss Fannie Washington, for the exhibit of the Kenmore association in the Palace of Education was a reproduction of the back porch of the mansion at Fredericksburg, Va., where once dwelt her great-great-granddaughter, Betty Washington Lewis, George Washington's oldest sister.

Her great-great-granddaughter, George, sat on that pleasant porch through many a summer twilight in the days when as a young man he used to visit his sister at Fredericksburg or drop in from his mother's home, right next door.

Generals Met on Porch.
And when he virtually had achieved the independence of his country George Washington invited all the generals who had helped him win the battle of Yorktown to visit Fredericksburg and to meet his mother and sister. There on that porch they talked over the great victory and the happy days that dawned ahead.

At the exposition, Miss Washington, who comes from Fauquier county, Virginia, sat on the steps of Great-Great-Granddaughter Betty's house, looking out into the bit of garden before the door, where Ivy grew from four of Washington's Virginia homes, and strummed a banjo, and sang old songs that have been handed down in the family since the days of her great-great-grandfather, Samuel Washington, George Washington's brother.

She is a Carter as well as a Washington—her mother descended from "King" Carter, a baronial Virginian of early days, who earned his title by the way in which he ruled over the destinies of the colonists of the Northern Neck, a great domain ceded to him by his monarch and personal friend, King Charles II.

Many strange vicissitudes did the old mansion suffer before the Kenmore association was formed, four years ago, to rescue Kenmore and preserve it as a historic spot.

Site and Mansion Bought.

The site and the mansion now have been bought, thanks to gifts of $20,000, from a host of generous donors. But further funds still are needed to complete the work of restoring the mansion to its pristine state—that's one reason why the Kenmore association made this exhibit at the Sesqui-centennial. Its officers have proud right to say that not one dollar of the funds given ever has been used for "overhead expenses." The service of the association's administrators is all volunteer service.

When George Washington's sister, Betty, married Fielding Lewis, the bridegroom was a man of wealth—quite the richest man in old Fredericksburg. He provided a fine home for his wife—a capacious mansion with brick walls two feet thick and with a slate roof, set in the midst of a plantation of 851 acres. Brother George surveyed the site and himself designed the beautiful plaster ornamentation, in elaborate Georgian modeling, which enriches the ceilings and panels about the fireplaces. He sent Hessian prisoners to execute this work—after the battle of Trenton.

At the outbreak of the Revolutionary war, Colonel Lewis made the first plans for the Colonial soldiers. To ward the end of the Revolution, when funds were low, Colonel Lewis raised $20,000 to aid the cause of independence. He himself advanced $7,000 of his own funds for the guns that won the battle of Yorktown—and never was repaid! He died two weeks after the battle of Yorktown and the old house was closed for debts.

The old Kenmore house at Fredericksburg, Va., upon which porch General Washington spent many twilight hours dreaming and planning.

George Preserves Mansion.

But George Washington, the richest American of his day, came to the rescue of his sister and her seven children, and saw to it that the mansion remained their home till all the young folks were grown.

The mansion and the plantation eventually passed into other hands. At last only two acres of the original 851 remained attached to the house. Meanwhile Fredericksburg had grown—it now has some 7,000 inhabitants—and there was talk of tearing down the old mansion, or turning it into an apartment house.

Then patriotic Virginians came to the rescue. The Kenmore association was formed, to protect this house, as an important historic monument of the Fredericksburg Washington called "the place of my growing infancy," the Fredericksburg where Washington threw a Spanish dollar across the Rappahannock, the Fredericksburg opposite which was the Ferry farm, his boyhood home.

Mrs. Fleming Heads Society.

The president of the Kenmore association is Mrs. V. M. Fleming of Fredericksburg. Its field secretary is Mrs. Fleming's daughter, Annie Fleming Smith—Mrs. H. H. Smith—herself great-great-granddaughter of Patrick Henry and Dolly Madison. Mrs. James Starr is chairman of the Pennsylvania branch of the Kenmore association, and there is a chairman in every state.

In the Kenmore association's exhibit at the Palace of Education photographs were shown of many details of the gracious and dignified interior and exterior of the old mansion, of its historic furnishings, many of them Washington family heirlooms, and of a horse-chestnut tree still flourishing next to the house—sole survivor of 13 planted there by Washington himself, to shade his mother when she walked over from her home next door.

There were historic pieces in the exhibit, too—such as the side-table once used by Mary Ball Washington, the mother of George Washington, when she dwelt next door to Kenmore.

"Having seen the porch of Kenmore, now don't fail to pay a visit to Kenmore itself!" so Miss Washington and Mrs. Smith adjured a visitor to the Kenmore association exhibit at the Sesqui-centennial.

Historic Battle Scenes.

They promised much reward in such a visit, a sight of the Rappahannock valley, of the rare picturesqueness and natural beauty; a chance to visit the scenes of the battles such as Chancellorsville, the Wilderness, Spotsylvania and the two battles of Fredericksburg—all fought during the Civil war, within fifteen miles of Fredericksburg; and a chance to see the home town of the Washingtons and the Lees, of John Paul Jones, and the seven generals of the Revolutionary war—the town, too, where Madison and Monroe were educated.

Also the scene of the first American Declaration of Independence. The Declaration was adopted at a meeting in Fredericksburg of a committee of which Colonel Lewis was chairman, on April 20, 1775, fifteen months before a certain well-known Fourth of July, and twenty days before the Mecklenburg (N. C.) Declaration of Independence.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL
AT THE AGE OF 83

"Purges" and "Physics" Bad for Old Folks

While Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, knew that constipation was the curse of advancing age, he did not believe that a "purge" or "physic" every little while was necessary.

To him, it seemed cruel that so many constipated old people had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to "regulate" the bowels of old folks. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but each dose helps to strengthen the bowel muscles, shortly establishing natural "regularity." It never gripes, sickens or upsets the system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take.

If past fifty, buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself.

DALLAS

The School With A Personality

Don't deceive yourself by believing that all commercial schools are about alike. There is no school like the Byrne Commercial College, it's in a class to it's self.

It has it's own individual copyrighted systems, courses and methods, devised by years of training young people directly for the business office; they are as far ahead of those used in other schools, as the automobile is ahead of the horse and buggy. They are designed to train directly for the payroll, in the shortest time possible and to qualify for ready advancement to responsible positions. Our courses cost less and save you two to four months time.

We place our graduates in positions and they "make good." Free on request, our illustrated, instructive 32 page booklet, giving full information of our big school, with nine different courses from which you may select just what you want.

Friday and Saturday MARCH 4 AND 5

Have been designated as CLEAN UP DAYS in the City of Cameron and on these two days the city trucks will call for and haul to the dumping grounds all trash, cans and refuse about the place.

This is a custom pursued by the City twice each year and is an accommodation to the people. The City requires the trash and refuse to be placed in containers and set at the edge of the street so the trucks can conveniently get it.

The trucks will not be required to go upon the premises on these days. Please do not ask the drivers to go in your back yard for trash. Place all trash in cans and set out in a convenient place so they can see it.

The City desires to begin early in the clean up. All cans and trash accumulated about the place during the winter months should be raked up and placed in containers ready for the trucks on Friday and Saturday, March 4 and 5.

In case the drivers do not get your trash telephone to 283 for Logan Green, chairman of the street committee who is in charge of the city trucks.

The City asks the co-operation of everybody. Between now and March 4th and 5th have all trash collected and put in containers and let's start the new year with a clean town.

SOCIETY NEWS

SLUMBER PARTY

Miss Katharine Atkinson was hostess to her friends for a slumber party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Atkinson, last Monday night. The guests went to the New Hefley Show, and upon their return home found a delightful lunch prepared for them. Those who enjoyed this occasion were: Misses Dorothy Blaylock, Cornelia Esslinger, Corrie Collier, Doris Davis, Ethel Collins and Katharine Atkinson.

K. of P. ANNIVERSARY SOCIAL

Milam Lodge No. 125 Knights of Pythias on last Monday night celebrated the 63rd anniversary of the founding of their order with a splendid program of music, oratory and eats. A number of invited guests were present including Mrs. Alex Triggs, Miss Lucille Dickard, Miss Eloise Rogers and Miss Dorothy Blaylock and Judge Ed Gunn K. P. District Deputy from Rockdale.

Judge W. G. Gillis presided and his witty and well timed remarks were much enjoyed.

The following program was carried out:

Singing of America.

Invocation, Rev. J. P. Love.

Solo, "I Bring You Heartsease and Roses," Mrs. Triggs.

Duet, "In a Little Spanish Town," Mrs. Triggs and Miss Rogers.

Talk, M. G. Cox.

Solo, "Cherie I Love You," Miss Rogers.

Reading, "Bab's Birthday," Miss Blaylock.

Duet, "There's a Little White House on a Little Green Hill," Mrs. Triggs and Miss Rogers.

Talk, Hon. Ed. Gunn.

Singing, "Blest Be The Tie That Binds."

Miss Dickard was the accompanist on the Steinway. The ladies very graciously responded to numerous encores. The entertainment committee was given a hearty vote of thanks by all present.

On next Monday night the second rank will be conferred on those in waiting.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

Loyalty Week was observed by the ladies of the Presbyterian church with an all-day meeting of the Auxiliary at the church Monday with lunch prepared and served by the ladies. Mrs. Butts very ably led the lesson in Foreign Missions, and the following had a part in summarizing the Mission Book recently completed: Mrs. Gillis, Mrs. J. L. Coleman, Mrs. Floris Criswell of Buckholts, Mrs. Henry Sapp, Mrs. Dan Tyson, Mrs. Charlie McDermott, Mrs. Kathryn Robbins, and Mrs. Frank Lesovsky.

A large crowd assembled at the noon hour to enjoy the lunch which consisted of chicken salad, fruit salad, potato chips, pickles, sandwiches, cracker, hot coffee. A free will offering was made.

Next week the members of the Auxiliary will meet with Mrs. Floris Criswell in Buckholts, and each member is invited to attend this meeting.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR PICNIC

The members of the Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church had a picnic at Riverside Monday afternoon. Several guests were invited, and they assembled at the church to go to the picnic in cars. A jolly time was had playing games and in conclusion a bountiful lunch was spread.

BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB TO MEET

The Business and Professional Women's Club will hold their regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening, March 1st at the Country Club House, at 7:30 o'clock. There will be a program and refreshments. A full attendance is desired. Be on hand promptly.

MISS MONDRIK ENTERTAINS

Miss Lilian Mondrik entertained with a beautiful party at the home of her mother, Mrs. Frank Mondrik, on last Saturday evening. A large number of boys and girls responded to the invitation to this party given at this hospitable home, and a delightful time was had by all.

The reception suite and dining room were artistically decorated with flowers suggestive of spring. The guests enjoyed strolling and dancing thru-out the evening.

The hostess was assisted by her mother in serving refreshments of punch, cake and candy.

VALENTINE DINNER PARTY

Friday evening, at 7 o'clock, Mrs. Charles Alexander entertained with a pretty Valentine party, honoring Misses Helen Blaylock and Gladys Davis of Cameron who were week end guests of her daughter, Miss June Eva Alexander and of Miss Zinn Brooks.

The dinner cloth was decorated with strips of red crepe paper which made a square enclosing each service plate, and in the center of the table was a large cluster of red hearts in novel design. Beside each cover was a sentiment appropriate to Saint Valentine's

Day, and these were read aloud during the progress of the meal. Delicious fruit cocktail, chicken a la king, baked potatoes, stuffed with cheese, creamed peas, valentine salad in pink and white, ice cream, cake, orange tea, and mints were served. The ice was molded to represent large pink hearts, the cakes were heart shaped embossed with pink hearts and the mints were pink hearts.

After dinner a phonograph concert was enjoyed, after which two hours were spent in playing bridge. Those present to enjoy this delightful evening were the honorees, Misses Helen Blaylock and Gladys Davis of Cameron; Misses Margaret Zarr, Margery Karbach, Dorothy Gardner, Myrtice Rushing, Erma Moore, Lucile Swink, Frances Barton, Zinn Brooks, Jeanette Gillespie and June Eva Alexander.

On Saturday afternoon, the same crowd of girls enjoyed a picture show party and that evening Mrs. Lillie B. Brooks entertained them with a dinner party.—Temple Telegram.

BAPTIST W. M. U.

There were twenty-five ladies present at the Enlistment Service at the Baptist church Monday afternoon. Mr. Hutcherson was unable to be present and Mrs. Hutcherson very ably conducted the service. The president, Mrs. Burns, made some interesting remarks on personal service.

The ladies of the church are going to send sheets to Buckner Orphans' Home this week.

Next Monday afternoon the meeting will be held in circles as follows: Circle one with Mrs. Harvey Dobbins.

Circle two with Mrs. Wm. Henderson.

Circle three with Mrs. A. N. Green.

Circle four with Mrs. J. C. Martin.

The Royal Ambassadors will meet every Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Baptist Sunday School annex.

The Girl's Auxiliary will meet on Saturday mornings at 9 o'clock and Sunday afternoons at 2 o'clock at the church under the leadership of Miss Nadine Bragg.

The Sun Beams meet on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the church.

CHRISTIAN AID SOCIETY

The ladies of the Christian Aid Society met at the church Monday afternoon for an interesting lesson in Bible Study led by Mrs. J. L. Adams. There were seven in attendance.

Next Monday afternoon the Society will meet with Mrs. G. C. Walters at 3 o'clock.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Sunday February 27th evening prayer and sermon at 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 9:45 p. m. Young People's Service League 1:30 p. m. You are cordially invited.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH SOCIETY

On last Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock at the Episcopal church twenty-four ladies of the Episcopal church and other churches of Cameron were present to hear an inspiring talk on the Bishops' Crusade by Mrs. J. C. Tolman of Houston, who has been placed on the National Council of her church, representing the Province of the Southwest.

The meeting was opened with the song "America" followed by a prayer by Rev. J. P. Love. After which Rev. Love presented the objectives of the Bishops' Crusade as follows:

Confession of Christ openly before men as Lord and Savior. "Not only with our lips, but in our lives."

Regular daily individual and family prayer. "Lord teach us to pray."

Understanding better the mind of Christ through worship and sacrament. "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

Active service by every member of the church. "Laborers together with God."

Developing a deeper sense of individual responsibility for bringing others to Christ. "He first findeth his own brother. He brought him to Jesus."

Earnest effort to combat worldliness by more consistent practice of the Christian life. "What do ye more than others?"

In the discussion of the Crusade, Mrs. Tolman chose as her subject the second objective, "Regular daily individual and family prayer," as a call to rededication to Jesus Christ in Life and Service. Jesus Christ is our example of prayer, and there are others, namely, Paul, John the Baptist, Stephen, the Christian martyr, and the disciples who were twelve Galilean peasants, said, "Lord teach us to pray."

Indifference in the church may be overcome by constant companionship with our Savior. In concluding her interesting talk, Mrs. Tolman asked those present to relate their experience regarding prayer life. Several responded and very helpful suggestions were offered by Mrs. Tolman in regard to overcoming difficulties. Methods of procedure in the various Missionary Societies in Cameron were presented by representatives of the churches and those who attended this meeting felt they had profited by hearing the splendid remarks of Mrs. Tolman.

SHIPMENT OF CREAM FROM THORNDALE REACHES A SURPRISING FIGURE

That the farmers in this community are paying more attention to the cow, sow and hen theory of farming is evidenced by the number of pounds of cream which the local merchants bought and shipped from Thorndale during the month of January of this year. The four cream stations in Thorndale, the Thorndale Hardware Company, A. E. Falke, Emil Heintze, and Smith & Dodgen, bought and shipped 11,645 pounds of cream from the farmers of this community during January, and this cream tested out from the lowest about 22 per cent to 40 per cent butter fat, which brought an average of 29c per pound during the month—Thorndale Champion.

St. Monica's Church

The above is a photo of St. Monica's church, Catholic, in Cameron, badly damaged by fire on Saturday morning, February 19, 1927. This picture was taken in 1921 and was a part of a layout of cuts of Cameron churches. In the foreground may be seen Rev. Father Spinneweber bending over some shrubbery. He was pastor for nearly 20 years. Rev. Father Apel is now pastor of the church. The church was built in 1904 under the leadership of Rev. Peter Pienemann. Damages caused by the fire are estimated at from $8,000 to $10,000. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

KATHRYN K. ROBBINS ON TEXT BOOK BOARD

MOODY NAMES MILAM COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT TO POSITION

Friends of Mrs. Kathryn K. Robbins, County Superintendent of Schools were delighted to note that she has been appointed a member of the Text Book Commission. The appointment was a great surprise to Mrs. Robbins and is a recognition of her ability in educational work.

The names of fifteen teachers are recommended by the State Superintendent, Presidents of A. & M. College, College of Industrial Arts, Southwest Texas State Normal, and University of Texas. From the fifteen names submitted, the governor selects seven members of recognized scholarship and professional standing who have been actively and continuously engaged in teaching or supervision in the public schools of this State for the past five years. Only two women may be appointed to serve on this commission.

Governor Moody's notice to Mrs. Robbins of her appointment was received Monday of this week and is as follows:

Dear Mrs. Robbins:

"I have appointed you as a member of the Texas State Textbook Commission, and the Senate has confirmed the appointment. I hope you will be able to serve in this capacity.

With expressions of esteem and respect, I am,

Very truly yours,
Signed: Dan Moody.

Mrs. Robbins is serving her second term as County Superintendent and has made a most capable and conscientious official. She came into office after a most thorough training, as a teacher of ripe experience and brought to the discharge of its manifold duties, a broad outlook and a desire to place the schools of Milam County on an equality with the best rural schools of the State.

Mrs. Robbins, whose parents were pioneer settlers of Milam County, received her education in the Cameron schools and the State University. She taught in the rural schools of the County and in the Cameron schools. During the war she spent three years in Washington, being connected with the War Risk Insurance Bureau, where she acquired valuable clerical experience, which has been of great advantage to her in the administration of the office of County Superintendent.

Mrs. Robbins has been for years a close student of educational progress in Texas and has a broad, clear and commonsense understanding of present day needs of the schools. She has a definite program and is bending all her energies to the task of organizing the schools of the county so as to give the children the very best advantages that can be secured for them with the available funds.

W. J. Walker Is Given Two Year Contract As Head Gilmer Schools

The following clipping from the Gilmer Mirror will be of interest to the many friends in Cameron of W. J. Walker, former principal of the schools here. Mr. Walker has just been given a two-year contract to head the Gilmer schools:

At a recent meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Gilmer Public Schools, they unanimously tendered Supt. W. J. Walker a two-year contract.

Considering the short time he has been here, and this being out of the ordinary, it was a high compliment to his efficiency and shows that his manner of conducting the schools, his constructive work along educational lines has the approval of the Board.

The trustees, no doubt, had in mind to make his stay here certain beyond peradventure, so that he would be at ease in mind about his work, and so that they would be at ease about a Superintendent that suited them.

During his stay here, Supt. Walker made many friends who will be glad outside of the school patrons, has to learn that his efforts have been appreciated, and will join in the hope that he will accept the contract offered.—Gilmer Mirror.

METER TEST BILL SIGNED BY MOODY

Austin, Tex., Feb. 21.—Examination, testing and reading of electric light, power, natural and artificial gas meters used by private concerns is provided in a House bill signed by Governor Moody Monday. Examination, testing and reading of the meters, under provisions of the bill, is to be made by agents of the city council or city commissioners of any city or town upon complaint by a customer. Refusal to permit the examination, testing and reading would constitute a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding $200 for each day of refusal.

EDITOR COOKE NOW IN TEMPLE HOSPITAL

COMES FROM UNDER THE KNIFE WITH OPEN MIND AND SEES

(Temple Telegram)

John Esten Cooke, the man who made the Rockdale Reporter famous and who thus put this thriving home city on the map long before they ever thought of an oil field there, is convalescing in a local hospital from a recent successful mastoid operation.

His face beaming with smiles yesterday, he told a representative of the Telegram that he went under the knife with an open mind and came out the same way—his head feeling like it had been punctured with a can opener. If he did not have an open mind before his experience on the operating table, he at least got up with a skillfully performed opening in his head—and either because his brain cells are functioning better now, or because a new idea has crept into his head through this opening the sturdy old-timer is talking sense.

He is planning a vacation.

Being forced away from his desk by necessity for the operation he has found that his son, Bill Cooke, can get the paper out and do nearly as good a job at it as he can himself. Now the father is dreaming of turning the paper over to his son, shaking off all cares and hying out to places where they never heard of type cases and printer's ink. From the glint in his eyes as he talked about his plans one might think that he could catch some of the fish that usually get away from expert anglers.

Bill Cooke, the son, was at his father's bedside yesterday—a fine looking young man who was brought up in his father's print shop and who specialized in journalism at college. He had an article in the last issue of the Reporter that pleased the "editor and proprietor" highly—a review of the oil industry in the Rockdale field that shows more than 500 wells producing some 1,500 barrels of oil a week.

The royalty from these wells, John Esten Cooke pointed out, remains in Rockdale and many of them are owned and operated by Rockdale people. The oil industry there has been a great boon to the city, which is now enjoying unusual prosperity. Many oil men believe there is a gusher pool beneath the shallow oil and the next task is to locate that pool.

John Esten Cooke is known to the newspaper fraternity throughout the state and has many friends in this section. He likes Temple, his doctor and—if the folks at home never hear about it—his nurse, too.

Rockdale, Tex., Feb. 20.—Word has been received from Temple to the effect that John Esten Cooke, editor of the Rockdale Reporter, had undergone a mastoid operation Friday morning, and had come out of that ordeal successfully.

Cooke has been at the sanitarium for the last several weeks taking treatments and it had been hoped that an operation would not be necessary. His many friends in Rockdale and among the newspaper men of the state will join his near ones in hoping for him a speedy recovery and an early return to Rockdale, where he is sincerely missed.—Temple Telegram.

TEXAS STATE BOARD OF HEALTH WEEKLY LETTER

State Bureau of Child Hygiene

The bureau of child hygiene of the state board of health has at present 28 public health nurses who are working in co-operation with as many counties in the promotion of maternity and infant welfare, according to Dr. H. N. Barnett, director of this department.

"In addition to maternity and infancy welfare work, the nurses also give part time to school children, organizing junior health clubs, and lecturing on the formation of health habits," Dr. Barnett stated.

"The regular routine of maternity and infancy welfare work includes prenatal conferences, children's health conferences, instruction of midwives' classes, establishment of permanent health centers, dental clinics, nutrition classes for pre-school children, assisting in sanitary and birth registration surveys, and lecturing on public health subjects."

Other Health Services

"Other health services offered the public by the bureau of child hygiene are parental letters for expectant mothers, there being more than two thousand mothers at the present time on the mailing list; literature on infant and child welfare; health posters for schools and child hygiene literature."

"In addition, the department has supervision of maternity homes, maternity hospital wards, and boarding homes for children. An itinerant

Cancer

Cancer is one of the diseases shown by statistics to be on the upward trend during late years, reaching a new maximum rate in 1926. Facts concerning cancer generally agreed to by health authorities are given by the state board of health as follows:

The causation of cancer is not definitely known, but for all practical purposes, cancer is not looked upon as contagious or infectious.

Cancer is no longer considered hereditary, though a certain predisposition to this disease can be transmitted through inheritance. However, it does not necessarily follow that because one member of a family has cancer that it will appear in other persons of the same or succeeding generations.

Cure of Cancer

The cure of cancer depends upon discovering the growth early before it has done irreparable injury to a vital part of the body and before it has spread to other parts, and giving prompt treatment to same.

The only forms of treatment generally agreed upon to be justified by experience and observation are surgery, radium and x-rays.

Suspicious signs of cancer are chronic sores that show no tendency to heal by ordinary methods of treatment; small lumps in the breast; chronic condition of the rectum, such as fissures and piles; black or pigmented moles that become irritated; unnatural bleeding or other discharges from the womb; enlarged prostate; gastric ulcers and chronic intestinal trouble.

Those suffering from any suspicious sign of cancer should immediately consult their family physician, as cancer can be cured in its early stages. Delayed treatment of this disease means prolonged suffering and death.

HUDSON-ESSEX COMPLETES $17,000,000 EXPANSION

To make ready for the new Hudson-Super Six and Essex Super-Six models which it is displaying at the show, the Hudson Motor Car Company has just completed one of the largest building programs the automobile industry has known, it is announced by a Hudson official.

This program includes not only a $10,000,000 body plant which is so far the largest single body-building unit in the world, but about $7,000,000 additional for additions and improvements to the main plant. The latter has been enlarged by new construction, and has had its machine assembling facilities so re-arranged that 1,600 Hudson Essex cars can now be built in a 9-hour day. This is more than double the daily capacity possible before the expansion.

"The result of these expenditures," said the Hudson official, "is that we have developed one of the most efficient and low-cost factories in the whole industry."

PIONEER WOMAN OF ROCKDALE BURIED

Rockdale, Tex., Feb. 20.—Funeral services for Mrs. Martha Kinney, aged 82 years, who passed away at her home in this city Thursday, were held from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Lee, Friday at 3 o'clock p. m. Reverend J. A. Hall of Waco, but former pastor of the First Baptist church here, officiated.

Interment was made in the Odd Fellow cemetery. Mrs. Kinney was a long-time resident of Milam county and Rockdale, and had been bedridden for many months. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. J. L. Lee of this city, Mrs. Carl Vittrup of Dallas; a son, Thomas Prewitt of Rockdale, and four other children, all grown, who reside in west Texas. Several grandchildren and great-grandchildren survive.

HIGH HONORS FOR ROCKDALE TIGERS

Rockdale, Tex., Feb. 20.—Following completion of the county tournament at Rockdale Tuesday, that was interrupted by rains on February 5, two players of the Rockdale high school Tigers received berths in the all-county basketball team picked by the several county coaches.

In the semi-final games of the tournament Tuesday afternoon, Yarrelton defeated Thorndale, 13 to 12, and later nosed out the Buckholts basketballers, 20 to 18, winning the county championship and the right to represent Milam county at the district meet in Waco, February 18 and 19.

Although the Yarrelton boys eliminated the Rockdale team in the early stages of the tournament by a one-point victory, the Tigers were rated by Referee Wilkins as one of the strongest teams of the county.

The honor team picked by Wilkins includes: First team—Young of Buckholts and W. Rinn of Rockdale, forwards; Smith of Rockdale, center; Green of Rockdale and Terrell of Yarrelton, guards.

Second team—Young of Cameron and Aikman of Yarrelton, forwards; Scott of Rockdale, center. Powers of Cameron and Evans of Thorndale, guards.

ROCKDALE FORMS A BONEHEAD CLUB

Rockdale, Tex., Feb. 19.—The Bonehead club, is the name adopted at a meeting of the business men of the city at a noon luncheon Thursday, at which time it was decided that the charter of the old Lions Club would be dropped and the organization be continued along the same lines as the Lions club. Meetings will be held at the noon hour monthly. The officers are: L. A. Baxter, president; Clay Allen, vice-president; M. N. Stricker, secretary; E. A. Camp, feeder.

little better than its town, the latter is the gainer thereby."Towns and their newspapers usually lag or lead together. Progressive journalism is the unflinching tonic of the lethargic community, but it is equally true that a lifeless newspaper can seriously retard the development of its community.There is no better community asset than a home newspaper equal to the needs of the community. While a poor newspaper is better than none to the individual reader that does not hold true for the town.What can a good newspaper do for its community? It can serve as the town's messenger to the outside world.
It must take leadership in all community projects if they are to be successful. It is the infallible line of communication between local government and citizen. It is to the newspaper that all organizations turn for assistance in public welfare movements and without that assistance they face failure.The newspaper reaps the reward of its initiative by sharing in the general improvement of business and community affairs it has been instrumental in bringing about. The good newspaper deems it a pleasure to serve its community and its readers and is fully aware that it is only through giving a full measure of service that it can progress and prosper.

FREE PUBLICITY

The Herald, like other newspapers the world over, is repeatedly the victim of artful attacks in an effort to secure valuable space for the introduction of various schemes for private gain or the moulding of public opinion toward "putting over" some sinister plot.Some bureau or syndicate or manufacturer or politician will hit upon a happy idea, and some clever fellow will tell him just how he can work the newspapers for all the "stuff" needed;
whereupon the "expert" is engaged or the advice is taken without the aid of the expert. He makes good at getting the stuff out, but publishers are too keen to allow the grafting game to go too far.Invariably, when the scheme is found out in time, and the matter is refused, a threat is hurled at the publishers that the "story" will be given to another paper.The plot works, occasionally, but not always.In the long run, the schemer usually loses out because never again can the paper be approached in the same way by the same schemer.The fact must be considered, also, that unless citizens can be depended upon at all times to furnish their local journal with live stories they cannot expect to get away with spasmodic attempts to put over propaganda. The editor is a hard man to fool.

THE AGE-OLD PASTIME

Although the downtown districts of our cities the sidewalks are still crowded with pedestrians, it is probably true that walking has become an obsolete pastime in America. The rushing in and out of stores in the shopping districts isn't walking anyway, in the opinion of lovers of that form of physical exercise.We have lost the feeling of leisure which in former days was so conducive to walking. Even in our motoring we seem to be possessed of the idea that we must hurry to get somewhere, although we may have no particular destination in mind.Obviously the automobile does not permit of strolling. When the road

How to Make 12c Cotton Pay

Writing in the Anderson Mail, Gee McGee tells just how to make cotton at 12c a pound. We know our readers will be interested in finding out just how it can be done, so we give Gee's ten specific rules as follows:—

- 1.—Rent a good farm for part of the crop, and shoot your landlord if he ever mentions his part to you.
- 2.—Buy your grain on credit. Steal your mule feed and plow tools from your neighbor. Give checks for groceries.
- 3.—Stay away from church so your preacher won't expect you to pay him anything, and if he sends a collector around, why, turn him down.
- 4.—Borrow a shoat to raise on halves. When he gets fat, kill him, and tell the man you got it from that his half died.
- 5.—Spend every Sunday with your wife's kinfolks, if she's got any fit to see, and borrow enough rations to live on through the following weeks.
- 6.—Hire a hand and promise him two bales of cotton for his services and run him off before you begin to gather your crop. (N. E. Make him board himself while working for you.)
- 7.—Get some good man to endorse your note for $50,
and don't speak to him again.
- 8.—Trade at every store you find that will sell you on credit till "next Saddy." If any of them turn you down—buy one load anyhow and give them a check with high temperature.
- 9.—As soon as crops are laid by—take your mules back to the man that you bought them from, and tell him you are ruint. (He will be glad to get his mules back by that time.)
- 10.—Pick your cotton as fast as it opens. Have it ginned, and charge the ginning to your landlord. Sell your seed and cotton as soon as possible. Dodge everybody you owe and move just as soon as you think that somebody else is thinking that you are planning to leave the state.
That's all.—The Progressive Farmer.

is good, there comes the irresistible impulse to make the most of it, which to nearly all drivers means anywhere from 35 to 60 miles an hour. And consequently there is lacking the opportunity for quiet enjoyment of the passing landscape; and lacking too is the inducement for reflection and restful meditation which walking, either by one's self or with agreeable companions, makes almost inevitable.
In its own way motoring has its pleasures, and on the whole they are no less than those of walking. And perhaps in the stress of modern life it is only natural that we should have taken to the thrill-producing form of exercise.Eternal smashing of fanatics is the Overdoing?

Hurry, Worry and Overwork Bring Heavy Strain.MODERN life 'throws a heavy burden on our bodily machinery. The eliminative organs, especially the kidneys, are apt to become sluggish. Retention of excess uric acid and other poisonous waste often gives rise to a dull, languid feeling and, sometimes, toxic backaches and headaches. That the kidneys are not functioning perfectly is often shown by burning or scanty passage of secretions. More and more people are learning to assist their kidneys by the occasional use

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snuffling, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed up and miserable. Relief is sure.

CREAM FOR CATARRH OPENS UP NOSTRILS

Tells How To Get Quick Relief from Head-Colds. It's Splendid!

In one minute your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh will be gone.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed up with a cold or nasty catarrh—Relief comes so quickly.

Mrs. Friley Says Home Life Should Be Stressed More

Characterizing the Home as the unit of Society, Mrs. Chas E. Friley, Chairman of Home Economics for the 3th District Parent-Teacher's Association, makes a plea that each club in the district devote at least one or two programs during the year to some phase of home life.

After a careful and extended study of program material which is within reach of practically all Parent-Teacher clubs in the state, Mrs. Friley recommends the following as "type" programs that may be adopted to individual needs:

1. "Program materials for Parent-Teachers," Extension Department, College of Industrial Arts, Denton, Texas.

2. "Suggested Studies on Nutrition" and "Mothercraft and Child Welfare," Mrs. Maggie W. Barry, chairman of Department of American Home, National Federation of Women's Clubs, College Station, Texas.

3. "Suggested Programs for Home Demonstration Clubs," Extension Service Department, College Station, Texas.

4. Plays and Playlets, Women's Press, 600 Lexington Ave., New York City.

"A Health Project," series No. 29, "Every Girl's Health," Jane Bellows, "Gym and Jerry," a health skit by Barbara Able; "A Play Institute" series No. 24.

5. "Health Hints and Jolly Jingles," Texas State Board of Health.

6. "Plan Book of May Day Child Health Day Celebration," American Child Health Association, 370 7th Ave. New York.

Parent-Teacher members can doubtless get other assistance along this line by consulting their county home demonstration agent and their county health nurse. Mrs. Friley will be glad to give personal attention to any inquiries addressed to her at College Station.

ROSEBUD SUFFERS A $10,000 BLAZE

Rosebud, Tex., Feb. 19.—Fire starting in the Cannon blacksmith shop here Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock caused damage estimated at more than $10,000.

The flames reached the acetylene gas tanks in the shop which exploded and spread the fire. The Freeman Taylor Mercantile company was heavily damaged and a lumber yard suffered some loss.

The local fire apparatus got the blaze under control, saving the lumber yard, though it appeared for a time that assistance would be needed from Cameron.

The loss is partly covered by insurance.

FORMER ROCKDALE MAN IS HONORED

Rockdale, Tex., Feb. 19.—C. F. Drake formerly of this city, and now a member of the editorial staff of the San Angelo Standard, was unanimously elected as Secretary of the Big Lake Chamber of Commerce and the newly organized Retail Merchants Association, according to a recent announcement.

Drake is well known over the state as a finished newspaper man and for his activities in commercial bodies. He was for several years executive secretary of the Rockdale Chamber of Commerce.

Following his resignation, Drake remained in this city for several years, and was active in the promotion of the local oil field.

He is a man of ripe experience and pleasing personality, which gets for him town anything he goes after.

ALL-DAY PERFORMANCE SOUGHT IN NEW ESSEX

"Fifty miles an hour, all day." Such speed is claimed for the new Essex models, although a maximum speed greatly in excess of 50 miles is available when necessary.

Engineers centered their efforts on a car that would easily maintain 50 miles an hour all day, with a minimum of gas consumption. Cars were actually run for days at 50 miles or better, across rough going. Results proved that the car is the easiest, smoothest riding car ever produced by Essex, as well as the most economical and easiest to handle.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES

Pineapple Supreme

A delicious and easily prepared ice may be made for the family dinner or evening gatherings by freezing Hawaiian pineapple before removing it from the can. Simply pack one can of crushed or grated Hawaiian pineapple in an ordinary wooden bucket surrounded by equal layers of cracked ice and coarse salt. Set aside and let it freeze for three hours. On removing the can, dip it for an instant in hot water. Punch an air hole in one end of the can and open the other by removing the entire top.

From the translucent cylinder of frozen fruit which will then be easily removed without breaking, slice the desired number of portions. Dot each slice with strawberry jam, a medium spoonful. Top with whipped cream and serve.

The frozen pineapple also makes a delicious filling for cantaloupe from which the seeds have been removed.

Dependable for Emergencies

Because it may be used as a part of any course for any meal, Hawaiian pineapple is one of the most dependable of all the canned foods that the wise housewife keeps on her pantry shelves as a safeguard against embarrassing emergencies.

Served with powdered sugar on top of French toast, sliced pineapple makes a delicious breakfast. For luncheon it may be used in the salad or in sandwiches. For dinner it may be used in the salad or in sandwiches. For dinner it may appear in the fruit cup, the salad, as a supplement to the meat course or in the dessert. Even in the afternoon and evening, Hawaiian pineapple is ready to do its delicious duty in all sorts of delightful punches, frappes and eggnogs.

VESTER LANKFORD WINS $50 VIOLIN IN FIDDLER'S CONTEST

The Old Fiddler's Contest sponsored by the Gem Theater Saturday night featured a number of local musicians and proved to be quite interesting. Those entering the Fiddler's Contest were: J. R. Ellison with Mrs. Ellison at the piano and Mrs. M. S.

Bartlett with her banjo, and Vester Lankford of the Conoley community with his violin. Vester Lankford won the prize, a $50 violin, as the best fiddler.

Five local boys and girls were featured in amateur whistling, singing, and dancing. The prize of $1.00 in cash and a scarf pin was won by Lorraine Urban on her exhibition in dancing the Charleston.—Thorndale Champion.

CHURCHES TAKE CO-OPERATIVE RELIGIOUS CENSUS

At the meeting of the Cameron Pastor's Association, on last Tuesday the following report was read and adopted:

I, your committee, appointed at the last meeting of the Association, wish to submit the following plan for a city-wide co-operative Religious Census:

1. That a General Director be appointed by the Association who shall have complete charge of the work.
2. That at least seventy workers, gathered from the several churches be enlisted to take the census.
3. That each church co-operating be asked to furnish workers in proportion to its membership.
4. That a day be set for the work and the census finished that day if possible, and those not seen the first day be seen during the week in which the census is taken.
5. No worker should be relieved until he has thoroughly canvassed the territory assigned to him.
6. All cards should be brought to a designated place.
7. A committee shall be appointed, composed of representatives from each of the churches, to assort the cards.
8. Stenographers should be secured to furnish each co-operating church a list of all individuals not in S. S. and not having any church preference.
9. Stenographers should complete and hand to each co-operating pastor, the list of individuals designated in point eight, on the same day.
10. All census takers should meet at a designated time and place to receive final instructions. Each canvasser must agree to follow instructions.

H. P. BLACK.

Mr. Black was appointed general director and instructed to call the meeting and carry out the suggestions in the report above.

KLAN CHARTERS GIVEN UP IN NORTH CAROLINA

WANTED TO MAKE FELONY CHARGE FOR MEMBERSHIP IN KNIGHTS COLUMBUS

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 22.—An open break between Dr. Hiram W. Evans, Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, and a large part of the organization in North Carolina became known Tuesday with publication of announcements that Henry A. Grady, Superior Court Judge, had resigned as Grand Dragon of the realm of North Carolina.

It was asserted that many klans in the State had surrendered their charters. Reports placed the number as high as 66 out of the 86 klans in the State.

The break occurred over alleged attempts by Dr. Evans to have religious legislation introduced in the General Assembly. Judge Grady, in a letter to the imperial wizard, said he had received three bills that were against the principles of the clan. One, he said, made it a felony to belong to the Roman Catholic church; another made membership in the Knights of Columbus a felony, and the third made illegal pre-nuptial agreements regarding education of children when a Protestant married a Catholic. A fourth bill, already a law in this State made interracial marriages illegal.

Soon after the resignation of Judge Grady became known in the capital, Representative Oscar Haywood and Senator Rivers Johnson introduced a bill in the legislature outlawing organizations that keep their membership secret and making illegal the wearing of masks in public. Rev. Mr. Haywood formerly was a Klan lecturer and Senator Johnson bitterly opposed a similar measure in the 1925 Legislature.

BUDDY LIMMER DELIVERS $20 TO STICK-UP MAN LAST SATURDAY NIGHT

Buddy Limmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Limmer of near Thrall was robbed of all his pocket change last Saturday night while en route to Thorndale in his car when he stopped on the Taylor Thorndale highway at a point near the section house by a man standing by a car who signaled for him to stop. Buddy says he thought the man was in distress and stopped to give him assistance. The man asked for a cold patch and Buddy made an effort to get it for him and about that time the stranger shoved a pistol to his side and commanded him to give up what money he had in his pocket. Buddy did as commanded and gave the hold up man $20. There were two young men in the car and Mr. Limmer says he is not sure that he could identify them if he were to see them again. The local peace officers were notified but no clue has been found to identify the men.—Thorndale Champion.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

You will notice the Sunday School Report from the various churches in Cameron. The per cent that we make which is based upon our resident church membership is pitifully small. Following is the report for last Sunday:

Church	Res.	S. S.	Mem.	Att.	Perc't.
Disciples	81	48	60
Baptist	530	284	54
Methodist	500	240	48
Episcopal	23	11	48
Presbyterian	275	105	34

MR. BLACK SICK

Mr. Black was not able to be with us last Sunday because of illness. We greatly missed him from our work, but we were very happy to see the splendid way in which the people went ahead with the work he had planned and the organization which he had set up since he has been here. Mr. Black is improving at this time and expects to be back in regular service within a few days.

MISSIONARY GARRETT PREACHED AT CHURCH LAST SUNDAY NIGHT

We were happy to have Bro. Garrett with us last Sunday night. It was the original plan that the pastor should go to Little River in behalf of the Conquest Campaign and Bro. Garrett would supply for him. But due to the recent illness of the pastor the doctor advised him not to preach Sunday night and therefore he was at home and enjoyed the splendid sermon of our Missionary.

Bro. Garrett spoke Sunday night on Baptist Heritage and pictured in a wonderful way our trail leading back to Christ, even though our trail is marked with blood. It is one in which every true Baptist rejoices when they find that we are worshipping God according to the dictates of our own consciences and having this wonderful gospel handed down to us by those who had rather die in the dungeon and be put to death at the stake rather than to recant, or turn from the faith that they love to a faith of hierarchy dictated by mankind.

After coming on to modern Baptist History and showing what our forefathers have done in Texas, Bro. Garrett led us up face to face with the question whether or not this heritage that we have will be handed on to the coming generation in better shape than was handed to us, or whether or not we prove ourselves to be little and selfish in our lives and let great causes die in our hands.

THE CONQUEST CAMPAIGN

Last Sunday morning the cards were handed out and many signed them and returned them Sunday and Sunday night, and it is hoped that every one will sign his card and hand it back by next Sunday night, for we must get a complete report on all our members. If you feel that you just can not contribute anything then you can lighten the work on us if you will simply sign the card and hand it back. But we appeal to you to do the thing in the presence of God that you know will please and honor Him.

Do not fail to sign your card and hand it back and then be sure that the offering you make is marked "Conquest Campaign" so that it will not get lost in our general church fund.

MUSIC MEMORY CONTEST

The Music Memory Contest is not only one of the newest features of the Interscholastic League contests, but is one of its least understood features. Training for competition in the contest does not include an attempt to give actual musical instruction in voice or instrument; it is not even an attempt to test in the usual fundamental course in public school music but a music memory contest may be considered the first lessons in consciously directed appreciation of music. By the singing of folk songs and other suitable melodies in the earlier grades, the children are led by personal participation to self expression through music. The next most natural phase of music training which follows in the intermediate grades (the grades including those eligible for the Music Memory Contest) is that of training in the appreciation of the best in music.

What more splendid opportunity for the teaching of music appreciation can be suggested than the use of the recreation of musical master pieces upon our Victors, Edisons, etc? The instruments are so well known that it is not necessary to describe them here in any further detail, but a few words on the educational value of the best of them will not be out of place.

Many of the most famous Masters of music and leaders in Musical Education have declared in favor of their value and assist that the ceaseless and accurate repetition of the composition upon these instruments is not only an incentive and help in the learning of compositions, but is of incalculable value, in awakening any latent aptitude for music there may be in the child.

Prof. W. R. Spalding of Harvard says, "Repetition is the prime essential in music appreciation," and "that lack of opportunity to command repetition is the greatest single check or obstacle on the road to music appreciation." In other words hearing great music is more useful in developing a musical appreciation than hearing about it just as in the study of English literature students are now expected to read the works of great writers, whereas formerly they only read about them.

Upon the principle that repetition is the prime essential in music appreciation has the Music Memory Contest been planned. Its purpose is not only to cultivate the proper appreciation of good music but to turn children away from meaningless forms of musical compositions to a genuine love for productions of the great masters. Certain beautiful and representative compositions of the masters are selected for use in the contest, one list for class A Schools and one for use in Class B Schools. It is not necessary to have a regular music supervisor but any intelligent teacher may successfully train pupils for the contest provided where the school does not own an instrument, it may be possible to borrow one from an interested patron and the records may be borrowed without cost except for transportation both ways from the Extension Department of the University.

Below are given the rules for the Music Memory Contest:

1. Eligibility—In addition to the general eligibility rules set forth in Article VIII of this Constitution and Rules, the following apply to this particular event:

(a). In Independent Districts only those students in the fifth to seventh grades, inclusive, are eligible.

(b) In Rural Schools, students from any grade are eligible provided they can satisfy the other eligibility requirements.

2. Divisions. There are two divisions in this contest, one for schools located in independent districts and one for rural schools. "High Schools" located in common school districts housing grades five to seven, inclusive compete with schools in independent districts.

3. Representation. A team shall be composed of a minimum of two members from a given school. If, however, a school has enrolled in the grades eligible for Music Memory, (i. e., fifth to seventh, inclusive) more than 100 pupils at the time the Music Memory team is selected, one member must be added to the minimum of two per team for every fifty, or fraction thereof, enrolled in excess of 100.

The director is very hopeful that there will be a larger enrollment in the Music Memory Contest this year than ever before and she must know a week before the League meeting how many contestants to expect. Please address.

Miss Helen Flinn, Director,
Cameron, Texas.

CHEVROLET PRODUCTION INCREASED IN 1926

Attaining a production of 112,499 commercial vehicles during 1926, an increase of more than 132 per cent over the preceding year, the Chevrolet Motor Company is now the world's largest manufacturer of gear shift trucks, according to figures just announced by company officials.

The increase is a gain of 64,200 over the 1925 production of 48,299 trucks.

This enormous increase is attributed in no small degree to the numerous refinements and lowered prices of the new trucks. Dealers everywhere reported an enthusiastic reception by the public of these new models.

The 1925 production in its turn had more than doubled the 1924 output of 23,134 trucks.

According to present manufacturing schedules an even greater monthly production is contemplated for the truck division during the coming months to insure dealers a sufficient supply to meet the growing demand.

Production during January 1927, totalling 15,927 trucks, also broke all truck production records for a single month in the history of the company. The previous high mark was in September, 1926, when 12,845 trucks were manufactured.

D. A. R. PROGRAM IS CHEERED BY HUNDREDS

"SUSIE'S BAND" AT YOE HI AU- DITORIUM FRIDAY NIGHT

"Susie's Band" was presented at the Yoe High School auditorium Friday evening, February 18 at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the D. A. R. Chapter of Cameron. This attraction delighted the audience and furnished two hours of laughter. The following is a synopsis of the play given:

Sweet Adeline lived in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia and was a beautiful girl, and very lovable, though rather fat.

Her blonde hair would have done justice to any raven's wing, no matter how high up in the air he got. Her face was round and plump, long and horse-like.

Jamie McDonald would have lived just across the fence if there had been a fence. Now Jamie was a stalwart youth and slightly consumptive.

His automobile was one of the seven wonders of the Ridge. Because of a nervous break down, he called it Neuritis. The story of their love was heard in verses and songs.

Those having parts in this play were: Tucky Freeman, Ruby Roberts, Daisy Wallace, Mary Lake Henderson, Kate Green, "Ma" Childress, Emilene Love, Olga Mae Cable, Nell Hefley, Blanche Rylander, Earle Bragg, Lena Baskin, Lula Fisher, I. G. Triggs, Nella Eplen, Bonnie Peyton, Aetna Smith, Lucille Dickard, Nell Martin, Gladys Hefley, Bessie Louise Hefley, Betsy Coleman, Bettie Stafford, Kathryn Robbins, Leila Woolley, Meta McCown, Delphya Scott, Hallie Lindsey, Mary McIntosh, Lottie Bigbee, Eloise Rogers, Lula Clinton, Mabel Olson, Loreta Young, Fay Childress.

This play was given under the direction of Mrs. H. La Clede Forrester and Mrs. Samuel P. Sevier. Each character played their part faultlessly and many commendations have been offered upon the splendid presentation of this play.

The program follows:

1. Opening Chorus Ensemble

2. Sweet Adeline Trio
I. G. Triggs, Bonnie Peyton, Kathleen Sevier.
3. Old McDonald Had a Farm (with barnyard vibrations) Ensemble
4. In the Gloaming, I. G. Triggs and Loreta Young.
5. By the Light of the Stars, Band
6. Love's Old Sweet Song (obligato) Ensemble.
7. Yes, Sir, That's My Flivver—Kathleen Sevier, Ensemble.
8. Jingle Bells Olga May Cable
9. I Love You Chorus
10. End of a Perfect Day—Bessie Hefley, Irene Forrester and Kathleen Sevier.
11. Sweetest Story Ever Told—I. G. Triggs.

ANTON KOSTROUM

Anton Kostroum, 75, died at his home near Yarrelton, Friday, February 18, 1927, following several weeks of illness. He was a prominent farmer and had resided in the Yarrelton community for a long time. Mr. Kostroum was born in Europe and came to this community when quite young.

Funeral services were conducted from the Marak Catholic church Sunday, February 20, by Rev. Kacer, with interment in the Catholic Cemetery at Marak. Green Brothers Undertakers, had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mr. Kostroum is survived by four children, R. W. Kostroum, John Lett, Vinc Kubecka, Julius Janicek and Joe Bartek.

The Herald extends sympathy to the bereaved children in the loss of their father.

WILL ROGERS GIVES PROHIBITION VIEWS

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 19.—Will Rogers, speaking before the Alabama legislature, urged the southern democrats to let the next national election go by default and urged Alabamians to confine Senator Heflin to telling negro stories in the future.

Al Smith is such a likeable fellow, he told the legislators, that after two weeks in Montgomery the local klan would elect him klegale. Prohibition is not an issue in the south, he said it's a commodity. "We're not going to let any yankee send us back to light wine and beer after drinking corn likker for eight years."

LOGAN GREEN NOW IN CHARGE STREET WORK

Logan Green has been made chairman of the street department by Mayor Judd G. Davis. He succeeds Wm. R. Rogers as chairman of the street committee. Mr. Rogers declined to stand for re-election and has resigned from the street committee chairmanship.

Being the same land conveyed to Ernest Kunchick, grantor herein by M. C. Fox and wife, M. L. Fox, by deed dated November 22nd, 1919, recorded in Book 152, page 466 of the Milam County Deed Records.

Whereas, the said Louis Breiling Trustee, has heretofore declined and refused to act, and has resigned as such trustee under said deed of trust and The Union Central Life Insurance Company, the owner and holder of said indebtedness and accrued interest thereon, has, in writing, duly appointed the undersigned L. M. Bickett, a resident of Bexar County, Texas, as substitute trustee under said deed of trust; and,

Whereas, the said Ernest Kunchick has made default in the payment of installment note No. 4 for the sum of $328.64 due November 1st, 1925; and has also made default in the payment of installment note No. 5 for the sum of $328.64 due November 1st, 1926; and has also made default in the payment of all interest upon said two notes from their respective maturity dates; and is entitled to no credits upon said indebtedness or defaulting interest by payment or otherwise, and said The Union Central Life Insurance Company, upon account of said indebtedness, has exercised its option as contained in said deed of trust, and has declared the full amount of the remaining unpaid principal indebtedness secured by the said deed of trust to be immediately due and payable; and,

Whereas, The Union Central Life Insurance Company, the present owner and holder of said indebtedness, together with all accrued interest thereon and of the lien securing the payment thereof, has requested the said L. M. Bickett, as substitute trustee, in writing, to enforce said deed of trust, as substitute trustee thereunder, to satisfy said delinquent installments and also to satisfy the balance of principal indebtedness amounting as of November 1st, 1926 to $2,731.83, together with 9 per cent interest thereon from November 1st 1926 to the date of sale, under said deed of trust;

Now Therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me, as substitute trustee, and in accordance with the provisions of said deed of trust, given to Louis Breiling, Trustee, for the benefit of The Union Central Life Insurance Company, J. L. M. Bickett, substitute trustee, will proceed to sell at the Court House door of Milam County, Texas, in the city of Cameron, Texas, the hereinbefore described real estate, together with all and singular the rights and appurtenances in any wise belonging, to the the highest bidder for cash on the first day of March A. D. 1927, that being the first Tuesday of said month, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M. on said date, to satisfy said indebtedness held by The Union Central Life Insurance Company, and accrued interest thereon to the date of sale;

Witness my hand, this 31st day of January, A. D. 1927. 40-4te

L. M. BICKETT,

Substitute Trustee.

HOPELESS

Weak, Thin, Nervous
Woman Gets Strong,
Gains Weight.

Mrs. L. N. Crawford, Jr., of Logansport, La., writes: "I felt perfectly hopeless. Life wasn't worth living, it seemed. I felt like giving up but, you know, a woman with a family just can't do that. I was weak, thin and nervous. I tried so many things but didn't get better. Finally I asked my husband to get me some Cardui. After I had taken three bottles, I was like a new person."

"I gradually resumed my work around the house and went places. I quit suffering. Now I am strong, in good weight, and feel fine." Thousands of women have been helped by Cardui, in a similar way, in the last 45 years.

Too Much Meat
Hurts Kidneys

Take a glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder
bothers you.

Eating too much meat may produce kidney trouble in the form of other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid excreted by the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up, and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so that it no longer irritates, thus often ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts can not injure any one; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders.

ACUTE ATTACKS

Of Indigestion Helped By Black-Draught.

Black-Draught was recommended to Mrs. Reatha Edmondson, of Williamson, N. Car., by her father-in-law. She says:

"Shortly after I became a bride, I had a spell of indigestion, and my father-in-law told me to take a dose of Black-Draught. I had never heard of it before, but I tried it, and got such quick relief. I have turned to it ever since."

"About three years ago, I began having acute attacks of indigestion real frequently. I would feel severe pains through the lower part of my body, and they were accompanied by bad gas pains. I took a systematic course of Black-Draught and soon began to feel better. The acute attacks disappeared."

Try Thedford's Black-Draught for indigestion. You can get it everywhere.

Jones Prairie Club
Greets Home Agent

The Jones Prairie Home Demonstration Club met Monday afternoon last, with seven ladies present. Had a very enjoyable meeting, were glad to welcome our new Demonstration Agent, Miss Bartholameu, also had with us Miss Jaunita Sprott district Home Demonstration agent from A. & M. who gave us a beautiful talk, which was enjoyed by all.

We didn't have a program worked out for this meeting, but discussed our year books and made a few changes in them.

We are planning to have a good program on March 7th at the home of Mrs. E. B. Yeager. Let all the ladies of this club be present and make a large and beneficial club at Jones Prairie. Would also be glad to have new members. The club voted to respond to the call for funds for the benefit of our deserving club girls scholarship.

Let all the members come and bring your nickles March 7th.

The 4-H Club of Jones Prairie met Monday, February 21 with all members present and five new members.

The first year girls hemmed cup towels and made holders.

Second year girls made sewing bags. Miss Juanita Sprott, District Home Demonstration Agent of A. & M. was present and made an interesting talk about our club work.

The next meeting will be March 7th. Let all be present and bring our sewing.

NOTICE

To Federal Income Taxpayers

For the convenience of those who are required by law to file Federal Income Tax Returns, a Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue will be at the Court House, Cameron, Texas, on March 7, 1927 to assist taxpayers in preparing their returns. No charge will be made for this service. The matter of filing your income tax return should be given immediate attention in order to avoid penalty and interest.

Form To Be Used

Form 1040A should be used if the income is derived chiefly from salaries and wages and does not exceed $5,000.

Form 1040 should be used if the income is more than $5,000, or is derived from a trade or business, including farming.

When And Where To File The Return

Your return for the calendar year 1926 shall be filed not later than March 15, 1927, with the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which you reside or have your principal place of business.

Penalty

A penalty of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than 1 year, or both, and in addition, 25 percent of the amount of the tax, is imposed by the statute for willful failure to make a return on time.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful
Lustre At Once

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

GOT "BUMPED" BY COTTON AGAIN

SAME OLD STORY OVER AND OVER IN EVERY COT-TON STATE.

Atlanta, Ga.—(Special).—"We invited the present unsatisfactory cotton price situation when we failed to take notice of the danger signals flying on every hand at planting time last spring," declared H. G. Hastings, widely recognized agricultural authority and President of the Georgia Association, a statewide development organization with the avowed purpose of breaking up the slavery to cotton that exists so largely in Georgia and other cotton states.

"It looks as if our cotton farmers enjoy having the very life 'bumped' out of them ever so often the way they come back and invite 'bumping' every period of high priced cotton. It's a mystery the way they keep coming back for more punishment in the face of repeated 'bumps.'"

Our farm folks, our country bankers, supply merchants, etc., must all get it through their heads that the rules of the cotton growing game are changing. One-third to one-half bale per acre is a money loser on any price but is in sight. Low yields per acre always means high cost per pound.

There is one answer, and one answer only, to the cotton-growing problem, and that is less acres in cotton and more cotton per acre. As the yield per acre goes up, the cost of making it per pound automatically comes down. We can't have much control over selling price, but we can keep production costs down.

Less acres in cotton means more acres available for food and grain crops, cows, hogs and chickens. Cost of making cotton is largely a food and grain cost, food for the family and food for the working live stock. Corn, oats, hay and forage for the mules, horses, cows, hogs and chickens; meat, meal, fresh and canned vegetables and fruits for the family table are made at half the cost or less of what is paid for same to merchants or dealers.

In almost every cotton growing community there are one or more farmers "sitting easy" right now. The secret of their easy posture is that they own their cotton instead of owe it for food or grain or borrowed money. They are not pinched. They have corn or other grain in the crib or forage a plenty in stack or barn, meat either in smokehouse or on hoof, milk and butter from the cows and plenty of chickens for regular use, as well as when the preacher comes around. Most of if not all the year round there are fresh vegetables from the garden and home-canned goods from their own shelves instead of the merchant's.

The safe way, the only way to make "sit easy" in times like this is to live at home and board at the same place."

Tiny Finds
a Way

By HOMER B. KING

(© 1925, Western Newspaper Union)

TO BIG JIM CARNAHAN—Lippy—and Tiny Perkin, had come the parting of the ways.

It was the finding of a rich old river bed at the end of the fifty-foot tunnel they had driven into a hill that caused the trouble; after years of seeking, the possibility of sudden wealth had suddenly awakened in Lippy the devil's rudeness.

Today the last of the gravel they had wheeled out was being sluiced and Carnahan had driven Tiny away, swearing he would twist his skinny old neck if he came back before the work was finished. Sneaking around through the brush, Tiny hid close to where the big fellow was working, and for two hours watched him, and before leaving he knew Carnahan was robbing him.

When Carnahan entered the cabin Tiny greeted him in his usual cheery manner.

"How'd she clean, Lippy, boy?" he chirped.

"Not much—that's all." Carnahan growled, dropping two slim buckskin dust bags on a slab table.

An hour after Carnahan took from beneath his bunk two other bags of gold dust.

"Pull up!" he ordered. "I'm going to divide what we've got."

"What's the idea, boy? Can't we do that when we get to Mt. Idaho?"

"No! We're splittin' right now."

"Why?"

"Because," Lippy rasped, thrusting his heavy face forward, "because, old man, you leave tomorrow for outside. I'm through supportin' you."

"Why, Lippy, you ain't supportin' me—our claim's more than doin' that."

Carnahan laughed shortly.

"Our claim?" he scoffed. "Ain't you woke up yet to the fact that you ain't got no claim? It's mine, old man."

After pouring half of the second bag on a piece of paper, folding it and pushing it toward Tiny, he rose, and first placing his gold beneath his jacket pillow he dropped on his bunk.

For a time Tiny sat silent. "Boy," he at last quivered, "what you've done ain't square, but I've lived a long time and seen lots of things—and understand. I've found out that gold madness is worse than most anything a man can get—and Lippy you've got it!"

"Shut up or I'll—"

"See," Tiny interrupted, "it'd make you murder your best friend. Come on, son, let's get away. We'll go down to Mt. Idaho and spend the winter." Carnahan leaped to his feet. "Cut it, you old rat! I know what you are drivin' at—you want to get me out where you can make a fight for half of this claim. Well, you don't do it—and tomorrow you git!"

It was after midnight when Tiny, leaving Carnahan snoring loudly, slipped out and hurried up the creek to the tunnel. Lighting a stub of candle he went inside. In half an hour he found Carnahan's cache. His next move was to stick fuses into several sticks of giant. Five fuses he capped, the others he only tied to the powder and dropped them into a sack which he hung across his shoulder, leaving the fuses dangling. Next he placed two of the loaded sticks at the tunnel mouth, lighted them and ran down the creek toward the cabin.

He was still running when the explosion came and small rocks rattled about him. He heard the roar of sliding earth and knew the tunnel was no more. Next he heard Carnahan yelling his name as he ran toward him, and slipping into the brush he let him rush past. Then he ran on to the cabin.

First he took the gold from beneath Carnahan's pillow. Next he carried out their remaining grub, Carnahan's clothes and their blankets. Dividing the food he put his part into his sack; the other half he left on top of the blankets. Placing two sticks of giant in the doorway he again ran. Then came the roar and the cabin was a jumble of logs.

"Two minutes after, raging like a crazy man, Carnahan came running back, and Tiny, swinging about his head a stick of dynamite with lighted fuse, yelling like a mad man, leaped toward him.

"Git out of the way!" he screamed. "Git! I'm comin'. I'm the powder man—powder man!" he sang, and disappeared into the bush as the roar of the powder he had thrown sounded.

Lippy gave one look and ran as though devils were pursuing him.

In Mt. Idaho, two days later, Lippy, red-eyed and haggard from sleepless nights of terror, stood before Sheriff Adams.

"I tell you, sheriff," he was saying, "he's plum crazy. Poor little devil. Why, man, he done his best to blow me to smithereens with dynamite. He did blow up our tunnel and cabin. We'd made the biggest cleanup of our lives, too, and he blowed it plum to kingdom come, but—"

"Hello, Lippy—figgered I'd find you here," Tiny called from the doorway. "Beat me in by an eyelash, didn't you?"

"Look out!" Lippy yelled, dodging behind a desk. "Look out! He's got the powder in that sack! Look out!" Tiny grinned.

"Don't get excited, sheriff. I throwed the powder away 'fore I got into town. I got suttlin' better'n powder here," and he dumped on the desk six buckskin bags. "Wish you'd weigh that sheriff. Half's mine and half's Lippy's. Him and me had a little argument back at the mine. Howsomever, it's settled now, ain't it, Lippy?"
